SSO WEEK

This week we celebrate the work of our SSOs recognising the outstanding and dedicated work of Auntie Natty, Uncle Barney, Sarah Parkyn, Helen Bland, Gail Wharton, Gillian Casey, Melanie Gow and Dinah Wisniewski.

BOOK WEEK — 'Find Your Treasure'

The F-2 class visited the Barmera Library to celebrate the beginning of Book Week.

After listening to the story 'Rodney Loses It' all the students successfully made cylinder rabbits. They then had time to browse through the library books and search for treasure in the Treasure Chest.

BOOK WEEK CELEBRATIONS

Congratulations to the following people who successfully chose the Children's Book Council of Australia's winning titles for Early Childhood and Picture Book of the Year.

Hi everyone!

I love the theme for this year's Book Week "Find your treasure". It reminds me of a well-known verse "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." This speaks about what is important to you. Where you invest most of your time, your money, your resources and your thoughts is also where your heart will be. These are the things you treasure most. It's good to think about these things, because sometimes we can invest a lot of ourselves into things and activities that aren't really that important. It's a good idea to take a step back sometimes and think about what is really important and where your priorities are in life. Where is your treasure?

I hope you have a great week. If you need to see me about anything, I'm at Glossop Primary Community School on Tuesdays for Breakfast Club and all day on Thursdays.

Best wishes,

Erin Harrald
